Ethnography and the Corporate Encounter

Chapter 1. Business, anthropology and the growth of corporate ethnography — Melissa Cefkin

Encounters with corporate epistemologies

Chapter 2. “My customers are different!” identity, difference and the political economy of design — Donna K. Flynn

Doing anthropology in organizational contexts

Chapter 3. Participatory ethnography at work: Practicing in the puzzle palaces of a large, complex healthcare organization — Chris Darrouzet, Helga Wild and Susann Wilkinson

Chapter 4. Working in corporate jungles: Reflections on ethnographic praxis in industry — Brigitte Jordan with Monique Lambert

Refractions of anthropological ways of being and knowing

Chapter 5. Writing on walls: The materiality of social memory in corporate research — Dawn Nafus and Ken Anderson
Chapter 6. The anthropologist as ontological choreographer — Francoise Brun-Cottan

Epistemologies, Part Two: Culture and the corporate encounter

Chapter 7. Emergent culture, slippery culture — conflicting conceptualizations of culture in commercial ethnography — Martin Ortlieb

Another look: commentaries from the academy and corporate research

Chapter 8. Insider trading: Engaging and valuing corporate ethnography — Jeanette Blomberg

Chapter 9. Emergent forms of life in corporate arenas — Michael M. J. Fischer

作者介绍:

目录:

Ethnography and the Corporate Encounter_下载链接1_

标签

用户研究
人种学
Ethnography
用户体验
UX

评论

Ethnography and the Corporate Encounter_下载链接1_

书评